

Urgent Information to Authors

All the authors and co-authors are hereby informed that all research papers received by us up to 31st March 2013 have been reviewed by our experts. The papers found suitable up to 31st March 2013 for publication in the Journal JERAD have already been published by us. However 27 research papers are still pending with us for its publication in the next issue, authors of which are also been informed about it. Otherwise no papers are left pending with us for its publication. The papers received by us up to 31st March 2013 which have not been published till now, are not found suitable as per the theme and expert's reports of the journal. Therefore, authors whose papers are not been published till now, may send their papers somewhere else. We do not entertain any correspondence regarding rejections of papers or return of original manuscripts. All manuscripts submitted to us whether approved or rejected are the sole property of the journal. We have started receiving new research articles from April 1, 2013. Moreover, authors should send their papers along with declaration form and membership form given on the website of the Journal. We avoid receiving hard copies or soft copies in CDs / DVDs of your research articles.

All correspondence should be performed through e-mail hijerad@gmail.com.
